TURN YOU

CH 5

SATURDAY

First stop is--

Art Block. I gotta get the limited run prints before they sell out!

No, we gotta check in first and then put our shit away.

zzzrppp
It is very uncomfortable in here.
Why did you bring the dress if you are wearing me?
You wanted to come.
Had to bring you here somehow!
I... still feel naked when I wear you.
I don't like that.

Your shiny liquid stuff really makes it easy to slide latex over it.
SQUEEZE
Oh?
Uh, what are you doing?
I love how tight the dress is, it makes me want--
Hnn, well, can you--ahh--stop that?
SQUEIZE
(Full body, covers ALL areas)
But why?
It-it-it--
--feels weird. Not sure how to feel about it.

Look at this! It fits perfect!
Look at my feet!
No one's gonna see your feet when you're wearing shoes.
But I know that I'm wearing it. That's all that matters!
ART BLOCK, 8PM
Wow, I thought there'd be more people in here.
At furry cons, there's a ton of artists, but the latex crowd doesn't have many artists.
But it's a tight-knit group; a lot of them know each other.
That's great for a healthy, strong community!
For example, Velma over there. Everyone knows her for that superhero comic you read.
That one about the dude who got sent to the Ying Yang World and came back covered in latex,
And then being hunted by the shiny Chi Eater--
That's her?
Yeah.

Tess, I gotta meet her.
Okay, but--
What do I even say? Anything I'd say is probably things she's heard from hundreds of other people already--
Ella, she's deaf. Can't hear you.
I cun hear y'all.
Wuhh... But you said you were deaf.
From that flesh-eating bacteria, right?
I am. But tuh suit it. I can hear wit it.
Trew her eers I cun hear too.
'Mazin', ain't it?
Oh god she heard me spitzing.
That's amazing.
LATER
Hell yeah, ten more comics to add to the things I'll never have time to read.
Signed copies, too!
Where next?

"To the Rubber Room."

Oh my god... there's so many people here!
Hey, nice dress.
BARK BARK
BARK BARK BARK
Muzzle that damn dog.
BARK BARK
BRRK
Aw, he's so cute.
Don't say that, it only encourages him.
I-IUFF
Are people really into that?
Wonder who was really doing the barking.

Holy cow, the latex shows off all the curves of anatomy.

THE GUN SHOW

I think I'm in love. Jesus.

Your heart rate is spiking.

THERE SHE IS!

SHE'S TAKING PHOTOS
You do that, Tess. That line's way too long.
I'm going to go watch that lube wrestling thing.
Don't join them. You'll break your skinny bones.
I'll fight you and lose, but I'll still fight you.

I want a nice slippery fight!
So slippery it's hard to get a hold on either person
SPLASH
They're putting in so much more effort than you would in regular wrestling.

That girl back there... she had abnormal colours on her deer suit. I thought you said that they only came in natural colours?

You can change the latex--I don't think they have a section with latex tattooers here...

Basically you have latex paint applied to your suit, and the suit will absorb it.

The paint has this stuff put into it that keeps the suit from completely changing the colours as it absorbs the latex into its own.

Huh.

Kind of like when people with tattoos wear transparent latex, really...

Oh, could I borrow a twenty?

Sure.

Thanks!

Wait, why?

Yo, try that on. I think it'd look good wit yer dress.

Think o' it as a prize fer beatin' me.

Hand made by me.

It's just a regular vest?
It feels funny.
Wouldn't hurt to wear it though.
Back!
Where'd you go?
I was twenty short to buy two passes to see Moni Mudi.
Who?
Moni Mudi. The dude that can wear any suit.
Why are we seeing him?
Why not? Don't you wanna know how he does it?
Ehhh...
Nice vest.
It happens in like an hour. 'nough time to get in a few rounds, yeah?
1 HOUR LATER
We gotta go to the Mudi thing. Are you okay?
Zeich is trying to kill me by drowning me in gross spit.
He totally stole my buzz. No matter how much I drink, I barely feel it!
Look at this. What is this. This is Saint Bernard amounts of slobber.
GURGLE
[Overproduction of Zeich's internal lubricant [to slide into easily] causes drooling. Generally caused by wearer drinking too much alcohol, causing blood alcohol level to rise and cause havoc for the suit's functions.]

What are we even going to be doing?
He was doing a photoshoot. And then we get to meet him afterward! Talk and what not.
Why are we paying to meet him though? Vauss didn't make you pay, right?
I don't know. He's flying in from another country so maybe he wants to get something back for showing up.
But he's the only dude known to be able to wear those really aggressive kind of animals.
I think I got the time wrong. Maybe he finished his photoshoot already?
Aggressive? What could suits possibly do to you that could cause issues being worn?
